Inauguration

The MCC Board of Trustees, faculty, staff, and students invited alumni, friends, and constituents to attend an historic week of events to usher in Kevin Ingram as the seventh president. More than 800 people participated in the five-day historic week full of opportunities to connect with friends and the campus community. President Ingram chose the theme "By Him, Through Him, and For Him," Colossians 1:15-20, to be the underlying message of each event. The highlight of the week was the Installation Ceremony.

Former Academic Dean, Dr. Dennis Glenn, spoke to students during a special leadership session during the inauguration week. Students, family, and friends of the Ingrams enjoyed a catered barbecue during a soccer game. Friends from Great Bend, KS, join Kevin and Lisa Ingram at the reception following the Inauguration. Alumnus, Paul Wilson, was also invited to speak for the leadership session.

Telling stories...

President Ingram's parents, Paul and Linda Ingram, share a few stories about President Ingram at the banquet.

Service with a smile...

Nick Brown and Gwen Otlman, as well as many other students, helped during the Installation ceremony.

Passing the torch...

Chairman of the Board, Lyle Jones, presented President Ingram with a globe to represent world missions, a Bible from former MCC President, Dr. Bill Lown, Greek class, and a paintbrush to represent service.

Down home cooking...

Faculty and staff members enjoyed fresh Alabama shrimp at a dinner at the Ingram's house.

All dressed up...

Before the Installation Ceremony begins, Blake Sabiston and a delegate share a few moments with President Ingram.

Preaching the Word...

President Ingram speaks at the convocation during the Inauguration week.

Beginnings

New students anxiously arriving, old students eagerly returning, academic advising, enrolling, orientation...just a few exciting aspects of the beginning of the year. The beginning of the 2006-2007 school year began with move-in day. The next couple of days included bowling at the K-State Union, ice cream social with President Ingram, the annual Faculty/Staff vs. Student softball game, worship in the park, activities fair, and many infamous team building events which no one will soon forget.

Jacob Starkey speaks to the student body at worship in the park. Students embrace the years' theme - Breathe!

Happy Faces.

Becca Lee, Bethany Brabec, and Anna Toll are excited for the new school year.....especially Bethany.

Run Home Matt!

Knock 'Em Down

Caitlin Wetherilt tries to bowl a perfect game.

Bring On The Pain!

Benjamin Eggers shows his strength as he clips on clothes pins for the win.

Barn Party

Fun in disguise! The annual MCC Barn Party was held at the Swihart's farm. Students, faculty and staff members enjoyed a night of fun, food, and frightening costumes. This year's Barn Party featured mechanical bull rides, disgusting food eating contests, and a jack-o-latern carving contest. Creative costumes made the competition a close race. The winners included Best Couple - Preston Lambrecht and Cathy Drenth; Best Group - Bethany Brabec, Chad Hannagan, and Anna Toll; and Best Imitation - Zach Anderson. A great time was had by all!

That's a lot of body paint!

Co-winner for Best Dressed Male - Kasey Portenier

Worst Dressed - Lindsay Sekoch

Best Dressed Female - Jenny Hejka with Katelynn Edwards

Winter Banquet

This year Campus Program Council (CPC) was in charge of planning the Winter Banquet. The theme for the evening was "Dancing with the Stars" and the Campus Center was transformed into a Hollywood scene complete with our own red carpet and walk of fame. Students munched on delicious desserts while sipping punch and coffee. Students were encouraged to participate in several different dance competitions ranging from swing to interpretive dance. This year the students even voted on a Winter Banquet King and Queen.

Ready To Party!

Katie Crum, Amanda Waterman, Valerie Marshall, Kallie Pennel, Valerie Brax, Laura Samuels, Abby Widler, and Katie Guthrie are looking good.

Billy Moore and Anna Toll are so excited to be chosen as the Winter Banquet King and Queen by their peers.

Housemates Lauren James, Lauren Ingram and Abbey Cotten are super excited about dancing.

Rocky Munoz and Valerie Marshall take a moment to have their celebrity snapshot taken.

Eric Sanford along with Ben and Jill Grogg love when the paparazzi want to take their picture. Apparently so does Anna Toll!

Model Walk!

Robert Windler and Mandi McWilliams have attitude.

Skip Day

Skip Day actually started the night before with bowling at the K-State Union. After sleeping in a little, the day began with worship led by a couple students. Next was a competitive powder puff game between the Freshman/Junior girls and the Sophomore/Senior girls at Old Stadium. Once back on campus everyone enjoyed a bbq lunch and many hours of volleyball and basketball tournaments. The day concluded with a concert put on by CPC for the students and the neighbors south of campus, as a way to say "thank you."

Jordan Bell lines up and prepares to take his shot.
Amanda Waterman serves the ball with hopes of an ace.
Marah Blacker, Jenna Solem, Abby Widler, Cody Davey and Brandon Barnum enjoy the day off from school and cheer on their favorite teams.

Steve Nash?

Lindsay Sekoch passes the ball during the basketball tournament while being guarded by Susie McGraw.

Watch what I can do...

Brice Ruiz takes a moment to prepare for his turn to bowl. Garett McHugh looks on intently hoping to learn from Brice.

Time to rumble...

Amber Zeigler and Lauren Ingram concentrate while Allison Netson stares them down.

Starting the day off right

Kai Blakeborough and David Ham started off Skip Day with a time of praise and worship

Break time

Donations?

Kevin Hubbard solicits hand outs while Brett Rouselle gives a thumbs up to the night of bowling.

Spring Banquet

Campus Program Council picked "A Walk Through Time" as the theme for this years Spring Banquet. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. McGraw we were able to have the banquet at the beautiful Manhattan Country Club. The evening consisted of dinner catered by the Country Club, exceptional entertainment from Comedy Sportz, and lots of dancing. Eric Sanford, Rick Wright and President Ingram presented the Servant's Heart, Young Crusader, and the President's Award to several deserving students.

Always ready for the camera, Lindsay Sekoch, expresses her excitement for Spring Banquet. The Senior girls gather in the lobby for one last crazy picture together. Brandi Davis, Holly Anderson try to convince Cathy Drenth that she will have fun at the banquet. The Comedy Sportz team used different driver's licenses in one of their skits.

Staying alive...

Brad Shank shows Lauren Ingram his mad dancing skills.

Dancing with the stars...

Jake Russell helps Josh Tatem stay on Chris Thompson's shoulders as they dance through the crowd.

And the winner is...

President's Award winners: Blake Sabiston and Katie Guthrie. Young Crusader Award winners: Dan Ditmars and Amanda Waterman. Servant's Heart Award winners: Amanda Kehler and Chad Atherton.

Focus, focus, focus...

Tyson Kinzle and Aimee Berry concentrate on their sweet dance moves.

They call me big papa...

Fellow 2FN residents, Marcus Myer and Kai Blakeborough, give Eric Sanford a little help

Thumbs up...

Anna Toll, Hannah Troutt, and Sarah Hachmeister all agree that the banquet was a hit.

Campus Events

This year STUCO created a new group called Campus Program Council (CPC). This committee worked along side Student Development to plan the majority of the activities around campus. The committee leaders were Kasey Guinty, Joel Keck, Lindsey Sturdy, and Hannah Troutt. There were many other students who assisted this group with planning events. Some of the events that CPC planned included Winter and Spring Banquet, Super Bowl and World Series parties, Skip Day, and several tournaments held throughout the school year.

Tyler Ingram can't take his eyes off the T.V. during the Super Bowl. Mercedes Hays is so excited she is winning during a game of Cranium with Allison Netson.

Freddy and CPC member Lindsey Sturdy enjoy all the campus events.

Line it up

Ellie Seals takes her time to line up her shot during a pool tournament.

Table tennis

Robyn Kejr and Jacquelyn Phillips try to concentrate on their ping pong game.

World of excitement?

Kelly French, Rebecca Taylor, Brian Powers, Jordan Roberts, Jordan Bell, Robert Windler, Hayley Domitrovic, Kelsey Rothlisberger, and Kayla Dexter relax and watch the World Series.

Can you believe it?

I did it!

Rachel VanHoesen and Krysten Day share in excitement as they play Guitar Hero.

I got it...

Cody Davey steps up to the table during an intense ping pong tournament.

Kerusso Dayz: Community

During the second annual Kerusso Dayz: Community, students, faculty and staff sacrificed some time to serve during their fall break around the community of Manhattan. The campus served the community at: Aggieville Business Association, Flint Hills Breadbasket, Tuttle Creek State Park, Salvation Army, City Parks and Recreation, Flint Hills High School, Manhattan Emergency Shelter, Youth for Christ, Boys and Girls Club, and Big Brothers and Big Sisters.

Students doing their share...

Anna Toll and Benjamin Eggers take on trash duty while cleaning up Aggieville.

Serving hands and a big shovel clean up...

Marisha Burt shows her classmates how cleaning is suppose to be done.

Sharon Berner and Lisa Johnson separate canned goods for Flint Hills Bread Basket.

Kallie Pennel shows the camera how much fun it can be to serve the community.

Salvation Army teams up with students...

Hayley Domitrovic and Sarah Hachmeister sorted clothes and cleaned the basement of the Salvation Army.

Canned goods bring joy to a students heart...

Taking care of business...

Amanda Kehler brings a little man power into her Kerusso Dayz service.

Kerusso Dayz

Joplin, Louisville, and
New York City

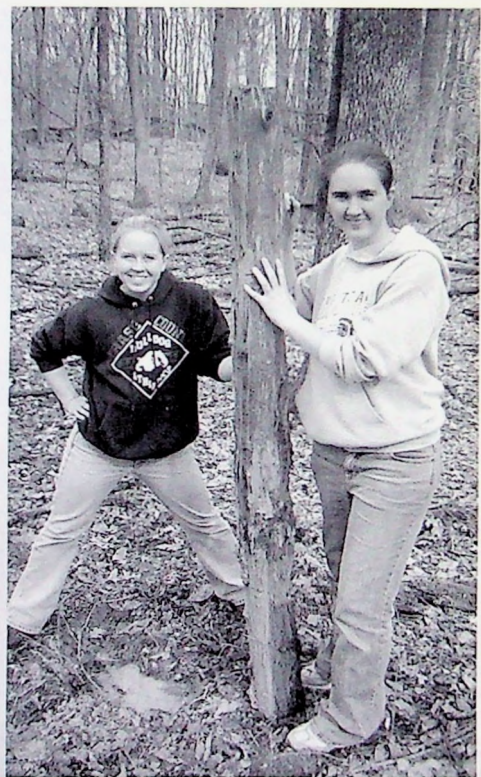

Students from Manhattan Christian College traveled around the country lending a hand to different organizations and making the most of their Spring Break. This year's Kerusso Dayz trips took thirty-eight students across the US and into Mexico for the opportunity to serve. Teams traveled to Joplin, Missouri to help at The Bridge; Louisville, Kentucky to work with Team Expansion; and New York City, New York to serve at Times Square Church. Each of these three ministries have an MCC alumni on staff.

Jason Grindle is playing it safe when it comes to welding.

Where's Cameron?

The Bridge team: Robert Windler, MCC alum Dan Mitchell and his family, Seth Taylor, Jason Grindle, Brandi Davis, Emily Davis, Lindsey Sturdy, and Will Heck.

You did what?

Sarah Hachmeister is the true struggling college student who will do almost anything for money, such as lick the floor of the subway.

Students and Alumni Combine Forces...

Nick Dewey and staff member, Dave Cook, team up in New York to serve the Times Square Church.

Kerusso Dayz

New Orleans and Mexico

Two Kerusso Dayz teams traveled to New Orleans, Louisiana and Sonoyta, Mexico. The New Orleans team worked alongside Journey Christian Church to help with Hurricane Katrina relief efforts. The Mexico team worked with the Mexican people at Primera Iglesia Bautista. Kerusso Dayz is operated by donations only. This year's spring break trips raised over $28,000. God truly blessed all the teams this year in their fundraising and in their hard work on the mission field!

Amy Hartle carries supplies to work on a house in New Orleans.
Garet McHugh shares candy with a new friend in Mexico.
Kelly French teaches a young boy in Mexico how to take pictures with her digital camera.

Play time

Kallie Pennel enjoys playing games with the children in Mexico.

Hard working

Jordan Bell helps clean up a New Orleans neighborhood by mowing the yard.

Student Led Ministries

During orientation week the Student Development Staff puts on a ministry fair so students can see what ministries are available for them to participate in. Kansas Project, A Different View, and Unspoken Message are just a few of the ministries that are led by MCC students. Kansas Project plans and runs lock-ins for local churches. A Different View is a drama team and Unspoken Message is a dance team. These three ministries are a great way for students to be involved with the school and fulfill their Christian Service.

Human Resources Director for Kansas Project, Greg Voge, is exhausted after an evening of running a lock-in. Kenny Park practices his drumming skills before leading worship at a lock-in. Chandler Hiebsch practices her rocker skills for Kansas Project. This year the Kansas Project leaders developed a new website to advertise.

Fearless leader...

Dustin Dick was the leader for A Different View.

Practice makes perfect...

Tyson Kinzle, Worship and Promotions Director for Kansas Project, practices for a lock-in.

Dynamic duo...

Dance party...

Unspoken Message members, Becca Lee and Allison Cushman dance at the Faculty and Staff Christmas Dinner.

Drama duo...

Sarah Padilla and Dustin Dick perform with A Different View at the Faculty and Staff Christmas Dinner.

Jolliffe Hall

This year marked the end of chapel as we all know it. No longer will speakers comment on the big white pole. At the end of the school year, many students, faculty, and staff put on their work clothes and emptied out Jolliffe Hall. Desks, pianos, pews, and many memories were removed so work could begin this summer on remodelling Jolliffe Hall. The ground for this building was broken in 1928; in 1929 it was dedicated. The building survived many years, was fore-closed in 1937, bought back in 1943, and was named Jolliffe Hall in 1945.

Chapel

Chapel is a humbling experience for a student to experience. To have the whole student body gather with the faculty and staff to worship God as one, is a highlight for many. Chapel is a student led service, every Tuesday and Thursday morning. Students lead the praise and worship, serve communion and also collect the offering. Communion is taken on the first Tuesday of every month and offering is taken every Thursday for various ministries. Chapel speakers are chosen by Student Development and range from MCC staff to alumni.

Kevin and Lisa Ingram sing a special song for the students during a service.

Sue Neal reads scripture that led into the devotion.

Spencer Smalley, Justin Reinhard, Joel Keck and Matt Pritchard get into some praise and worship.

Coach turned Usher...

Coach Ben Lister serves communion to the students during Chapel.

Rockin the Beat...

Marcus Meyer sets the beat for the worship team during practice.

Working the Worship...

Nick Sauceman, Matt Brown, and Lauren Ingram lead the school in praise and worship.

Inspiration...

Vern Henricks, reads a scripture verse to the students to kick off Chapel.

Sing to the Lord...

Krysten Day worships during chapel by participating in the choir.

Giving Him your All...

Billy Moore contributes his guitar skills to the praise and worship band.

Event Staff Camp Team

Event Staff and Camp Teams are two ways students can be involved with the Admissions Department. Students are selected by the Admissions Department to participate in these groups. They were developed to be an outreach to students across the United States. Event Staff helps with Oasis, which is for middle and high school students to come to Manhattan for a weekend of worship, speakers, and lots of fun. Camp Teams travel for ten weeks during the summer and reach students from California to Florida.

Amanda Kehler and Stacey Blake try to get all the events organized for Oasis weekend. Lindsey Sturdy gives all she's got to inflate a beach ball for the student-led games. Rachel Brown spices the weekend up with a little college humor. Bethany Brabec and Anna Toll play along with the kids during the activities.

Sisters in Christ...

Gwen Oltman and Ellie Seals spend a weekend bonding with each other as well as many young students from area churches.

A little beach fun, without the sun...

Kurt Keller and Brandon Blount show the students how to play the Oasis activities.

Team 1

Mercedes Hays, Alli Woods, Jordan Roberts, and Captain Nick Brown.

Team 2

Chad Hannagan, Sarah Troutt, Trent McGee, and Captain Jenny Hejka.

Team 3

Bethany Brabec, Kai Blakeborough, Captain Zach Anderson, and Anna Toll

Purpose and Goals of the MCC Camp Teams:

1. To share Christ with those who do NOT know Him. John 1:6-7 "There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came for a witness, that he might bear witness of the light that all might believe through him."
2. To strengthen the relationship between those who know God and His Son. Luke 22:32 "I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned again, strengthen your brother."
3. To serve in any way, at any time, or at any place to help a person see the Lord more clearly. Heb. 12:28 "Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe."
4. To encourage campers, staff, and fellow Camp Team members in their service to God. 1 Thes. 5:11 "Therefore encourage one another, and build up one another, just as you also are doing."

Kenoyer Hall

Girls, girls, girls! That is what Kenoyer Hall is full of...lots of girls. The various suites of Kenoyer enjoy bonding through functions like late night pizza fixes, all day movie marathons, and of course their everlasting pile of homework that really should have been started on four days ago. When living in the dorms there is never a dull moment! The dorm creates a place for family, love and laughter. Great memories are formed through laughter that often leads to tears and some tears that lead to laughter. Creating a lifetime of memories is priceless!

Jen Enfield gives the dorm girls a free "gun show."
Jill Grogg holds Cade Grogg, the newest addition to Kenoyer Hall.
Sarah Troutt and Hannah Troutt are more than sisters in Christ, they are the real deal!
Hannah Troutt, Rachel Whitfield, Marion Griffin, Rachel Engle, Anna Toll, Sarah Hachmeister, Katelynn Edwards, Allison Netson, and Mercedes Hays pose for an R.A. picture during the Installation Ceremony for Inauguration Week.

Good teacher...

Bethany Brabec teaches Alina Launchbaugh and Becca Lee how to really have fun in the dorm.

The family...

The women of Kenoyer Hall, and Ben, gather for a family portrait before devos.

We love the dorms!

Allison Netson, and Jessica Wright are so excited they get to live in the dorms.

What game are we playing?

Hayley Domitrovic looks confused as Kayla Dexter tries to explain the game played at dorm devos.

Love is in the air?

Anna Toll explains the game to the girls played for Valentine's Day while Sarah Hachmeister and Marion Griffin giggle.

Johnson Hall

Living in Johnson Hall is...interesting to say the least. Dorm life is crazy at times but if you look past the craziness, you will see that there exists a community of maturing Christian leaders that support each other academically and spiritually. Dorm life is quite an experience for all starting with the ever famous fight nights, holes in the ceilings and all the pranks. It all comes down to pure male entertainment! MCC has made the dorm life an enjoyable place to live, and most wouldn't trade it for the world.

Members of Johnson Hall hold on to the rope swing before dropping in.

Tyler Ingram, Kenny Park and Eric Sanford have a little family time in the dorm.

Clint Bowles gets down right serious about school.

Pure Concentration...

Andrew Cummings and Cody Davey have a little "guy time" while they play bingo.

Supporting the Sisters...

Andrew Schey shows support for his Sisters in Christ.

The Men of Johnson Hall...

Male Bonding...
Kurt Keller and Zach Anderson give Johnson Hall two big grins and two thumbs up!

Tarzan...
Freshman Daniel Mealiff sits on the tree as he gets ready to jump into the water below.

Chillin with the Guys...

Academics

The most obvious mode of learning is found in the classroom. The classroom is where the students of Manhattan Christian College are being equipped with the tools necessary for going out into the world and making a difference for the Kingdom of God. Though much academic work is done in class, some students spend an equal amount of time learning outside the classroom at places like, Radina's, Bluestem Bistro, Hale Library, or outside on the lawn. No matter where you go, you will find at least one student of MCC studying for their classes.

Knowledge is learned...

Chad Atherton and Tracy Oltmanns concentrate hard while taking notes.

Laying Down The Law...

Dr. Alterman goes over the syllabus with the class as they begin a new semester.

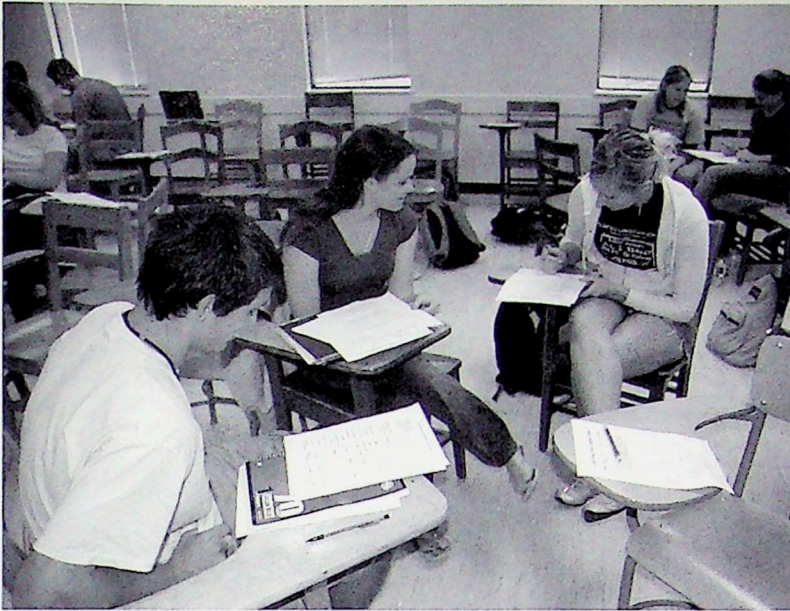

Lauren James and Amanda Kehler discuss the classroom topics of the day.

Amber Wheeler and Allison Netson rush to beat the bell in Coffin Memorial Hall.

Mr. Allen teaches physical geography to a room full of students.

Billy Moore and KateyInn Edwards follow along while scripture is read during a class.

Team Work...

Lance Williams, Valarie Marshall, and Rachel Brown put their brains together in this group activity.

I Love Class...

Josh Lewis is ready to learn, but where is everyone else? Too bad for him it is Saturday.

Hurray For Learning...

Hi! My name is Dustin Patrick, come learn Greek with me.

A Blast From the Past...

On this day in history Professor Sullivan takes the class back in time for some interesting facts.

LEAD

The LEAD (Leadership Education for Adult Development) Program, established in 1994, is a degree completion program for people wishing to continue their education. These students are usually "non-traditional" and are often people who work full-time. The graduation pathway takes about twenty-three months to complete, depending on how many credit hours the students start with. The students who complete the 120 credit hour program, graduate with a Bachelor Degree in Management and Ethics.

Servant Ready to Serve...

Steven Horton is congratulated by his wife and son before he walks into the ceremony.

Woman's World

In the Kansas State Union, February 23-24, Manhattan Christian College hosted, the 30th annual Woman's World conference. The theme of this year's conference was, "There's No Place Like Home." The weekend focused on heaven as well as encouraged women of all ages and all professions in their spiritual walk. The ballroom was transformed into a heavenly place "Kansas-style." Amberly Neese, author, adjunct professor, and energetic mother of two who ministers to women, youth and families in California, was the keynote speaker.

Captivated audience

Women pay close attention to Amberly's humorous messages.

President Ingram speaks to the ladies at the opening session. Women from all over gather at the K-State Union. Amanda Waterman played the part of Dorothy and sang 'Somewhere Over the Rainbow'. Jessi Moors presents Stephanie Sharp, Jenny Hejka, and Lindsey Sturdy with the Woman's World Scholarship.

Welcome Home!

Main speaker Amberly Neese shared many humorous stories as she encouraged the ladies to focus on our heavenly home.

Women's Soccer

The lady Crusaders continued to improve. This year they finished with a 4-11 record. The season was led by a large group of returning players: Cathy Drenth, Abby Cotten, and Lauren James. There continues to be steady improvement in the ladies soccer program and we anticipate another great season.

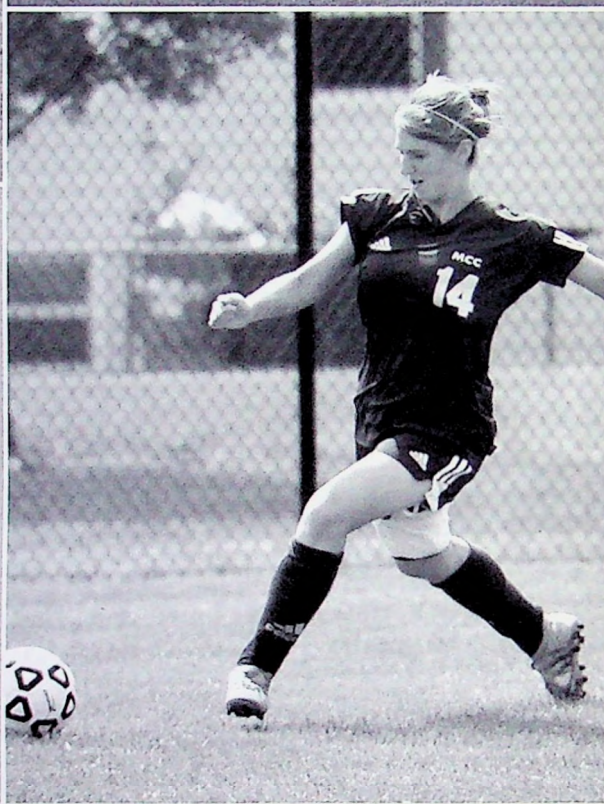

Keeper Alexis Kimmi clears the ball out of the goalie box.

Jessica Wright fights hard to keep the ball away from her opponent.

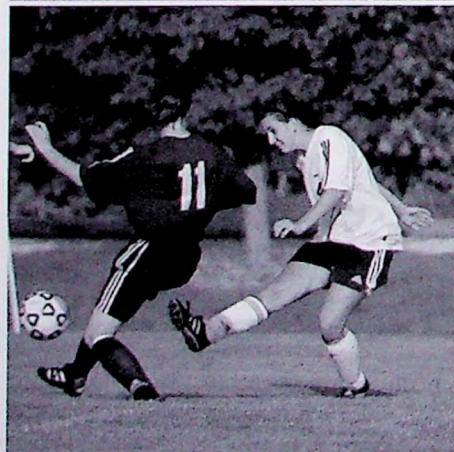

Lauren James uses her superior soccer skills to place the ball where she wants it.

Men's Soccer

The 2006-2007 Men's soccer team went through toil during the early stages of the season after gaining and losing a player in a two week period. They were also prone to injury throughout the end of the season. Despite the hardship, the team went on to grab third place in the National Tournament, a Regional title and Conference title.

Chad Hannagan controls the ball during the National Tournament.

Jonah Nelson and Anders Herpolsheimer take the ball away from their opponent.

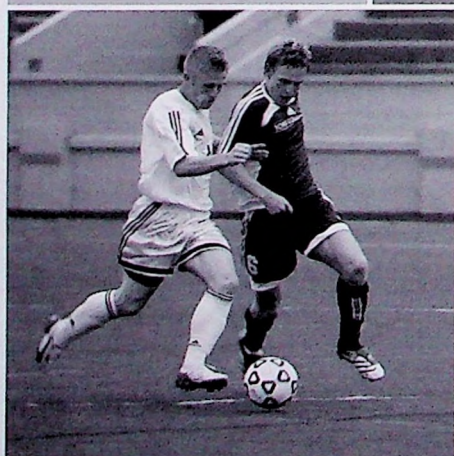

Josh Tedder slides to poke the ball away from a York player during a game at Old Stadium early in the season.

Loyal fans dress up to support the Crusaders at Old Stadium.

Bryan Dunham and an opposing player go shoulder to shoulder for the ball.

Andrew Crandall looks to take control of the ball during a game as teammate Lance Williams looks on from the back.

"We had a great season, and the only things that held us back from a repeat National Championship were a few key injuries and we could not maintain our pace after a mid-season peak. Next year we will be stronger in every aspect: be prepared!"

Andrew Crandall

"I would take on another $32,000 in student debt to play another four years."

Women's Basketball

The Lady Crusaders returned with just one starter from last season to this season. The ladies finished with a record of 17-16, and they were crowned Conference champions after going 10-0 in the regular season Conference play. They ladies went on to play in the Conference and Regional tournaments.

Senior Bethany Juhl was honored during a game this season at the end as her parents came to watch her play. Bethany was the only senior on this young squad.

Susie McGraw grabs the ball before it goes out of bounds.

The lady Crusaders huddle during a time out to listen to what Coach Lister has to say.

Bethany Juhl charges forward against her opponent.

Chandler Hiebsch shakes hands and congratulates members from the other team.

Lindsay Sekoch looks for an open teammate to pass the ball to.

Shelbie Lutz and Jolene Lutz double team a player from Hesston as she attempts to shoot the ball.

"MCC is a great place to play competitive basketball and build lasting relationships. Most of my favorite college memories involve basketball team members."

Bethany Juhl

"We faced a lot of diversity this season. It certainly wasn't easy, but we really stuck together as a team. These girls have become my family. We made some wonderful memories."

Rachelle DeShazo

Men's Basketball

The MCC Men's basketball team ended the season with a record of 18-20, but that doesn't show the talent and dedication of the team, as the young squad finished 9-1 in Conference play. The team made a run at the end of the season in the Regional tournament, where they made it to the finals only to drop to Central.

Aaron Gittenger sets a pick so Kenny Park can get around their opponent.

Kenny Park warms up with a lay-up before a game.

Seniors Josh Williamson and Aaron Gittenger are recognized after their last home game.

Ryan Kluttz puts up his best defense against two of his opponents.

Josh Williamson takes control and tries to make a move down the court.

Devin Toll takes on two opponents as he charges toward the hoop.

"It was a rough year at first. After Christmas break we started to dominate, but then came a devastating loss at regionals. We then promised ourselves that in 525,600 minutes, we would be on the road to nationals!"

• Kenny Park

"This year was full of surprises as we were short on both height and players, but we never doubted what we could do as a team. I am glad I had the opportunity to be a part of it all."

Ryan Kluttz

Josh Williamson, Kenny Park, Kevin Hubbard, Jordan Strom, Devin Toll, Aaron Gittenger, Richard Galli, Ryan Kluttz, and David Seibel.

Baseball

Under the leadership of new coaches, Bobby Randall and Vern Henricks the Crusaders finished strong as the NCCAA Central Region Champions. "Coach Randall and I were pleased that these young men were able to be rewarded with a Region Six Championship after working so hard and being dedicated to becoming better baseball players and Christians," said Coach Henricks.

Kasey Guinty "congratulates" Coach Vern Henricks with a cooler of water.

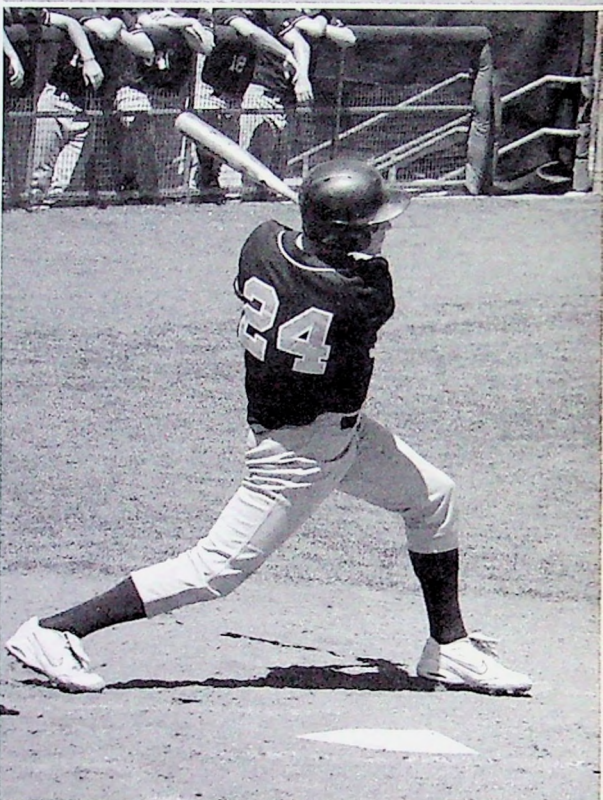

First baseman Kasey Guinty prepares to get a runner out.

Justin Reinhard is prepared to catch the next strike the pitcher throws.

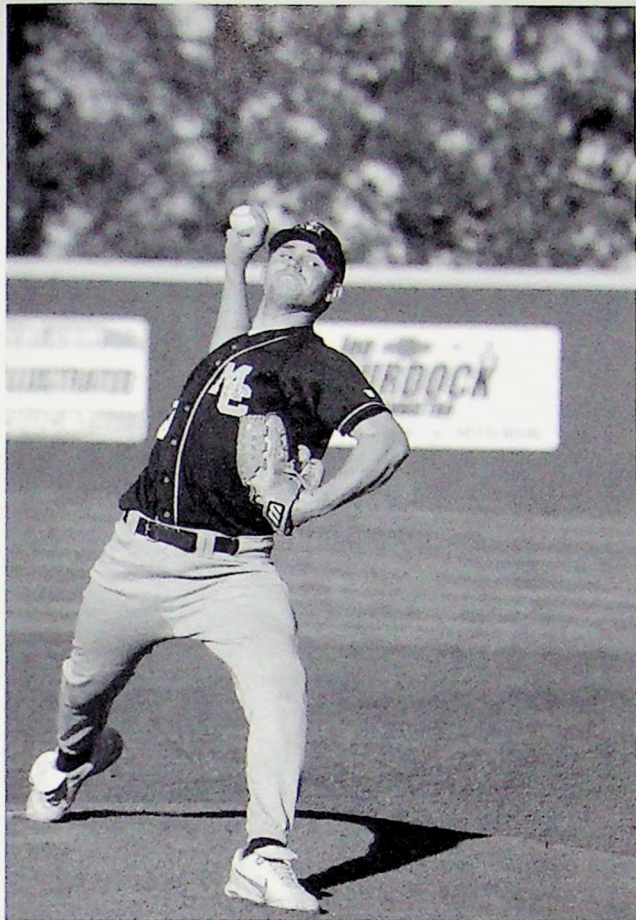

Kurt Keller takes his turn at bat hoping to hit one out of the park.

Six of our players were selected to the All Region VI team. Shown with some St. Louis players are: Justin Reinhard (co-MVP), Travis Mullins, Joshua Lewis, Kurt Keller, Zach Anderson, and Josh Tatem (co-MVP).

Zac Johnson throws the ball to the infield after catching a pop fly.

Zach Anderson uses great form to deliver the heat to his opponent.

"This season set a strong foundation for the younger players to build on and continue to improve the MCC baseball program."

Travis Mullins

"It was an interesting season. We competed against tough teams and managed to win a few games when they weren't cancelled."

Commencement

The auditorium seats were filled to capacity with excited family and friends. The stage seats were filled with eager graduating seniors, and the faculty and staff prepared to send off those who were called. The seniors had ended their undergraduate courses, but they were about to begin a life of learning, serving, and ministering. Memories of fun times, hard work, and accomplishments during their years in school give way to the lives they have been called to lead. Lives of teaching, preaching, and changing lives for God's Kingdom.

Rachel Cook and Rebekah Waterman prepare for the ceremony.
Tracey Oltmanns and Leslye Haller smile at the moment they have waited for their whole lives!
Kai Blakeborough, the student council president, read a scripture to the graduates during the ceremony.
Brittany Crum shakes President Ingram's hand as she receives her college diploma.

Bethany Juhl and Steven Juhl give one more look on their college life.

Congrats Grad...

Laura Beth Ann Knetter shows us how good it feels when college is over!

Equipped for Service...

Time is of the essence...

Houston McCarter, Andy Fenton and other graduates sit in the auditorium as they wait for their names to be read.

Friends are Friends Forever...

Heather Franz and Carrie Leonhart celebrate together after the ceremony.

Young at Heart...

Seth Taylor gives the camera a quick glance as he walks out of the auditorium, a college graduate.
